

First Interaction Session Report: Integrated Law Course-2028

By Chesta Srivastava

The First Interaction Session of the Integrated Law Course-2028 unfolded on January 15, 2023, marking a significant milestone in Delhi University's centenary year. The students actively participated in the event, showcasing vibrant Rangoli, eye-catching banners, impeccable compèring, and donning their distinctive black and white uniforms, thereby enhancing the magnificence of the occasion.

The ceremonial lighting of the lamp initiated the event, accompanied by the melodious Saraswati Vandana playing in the background. Professor Anju Vali Tikoo, the Dean of the Faculty of Law, delivered a welcoming address, providing a robust foundation for the commencement of the session. Subsequently, the event unfolded with the felicitation of guest speakers.

Professor Balram Pani, the Dean of Colleges at Delhi University, shared his profound knowledge, emphasising the importance of the orientation process. Professor Shriprakash Singh, the Director of SDC, infused joy into the environment with his sense of humour while delving into the lives of two eminent advocates in Indian history, Mahatma Gandhi and B.R. Ambedkar, captivating the engaged participants. He motivated everyone to challenge the illusionary boundaries we tend to create around ourselves.

The Dean of Academic Affairs, Professor K Ratnabali's rigorous effort in smooth start of 5 year law course left us all enchanted. She highlighted the techno-legal aspects and the scope of the law amidst emerging lifestyle changes. Professor Rajni Abbi, the Proctor, DU, through her enchanting tales, motivated participants to transcend the metaphorical chains of our self-made constraints, emphasising the pivotal role of communication in the field of law.

The informative session reached its culmination with a vote of thanks from Professor L. Pushpa Kumar, the Director of ILC. He encouraged students to redefine the legal field and highlighted the achievements of ILC, including the successful conclusion of two alumni seminars, the establishment of societies, a successful debate competition and the upcoming launch of its own magazine.
